

I urge you to allow full public debate on the merits of changing the regulations regarding broadcast ownership. I believe that there are serious consequences to freedom of the press in this country, if we allow further consolidation of media ownership.